THE CHARLOTTESVILLE TAPES Published
December 10, 2013 | By Witold The Charlottesville Tapes is well worth a second read. In 1983, Jaquelin T.
Robertson, then architecture dean at the University of Virginia, brought together two dozen architects to a private two-day confab (pointedly, no critics or historians were invited, only practitioners).
