China's Strategic Priorities | Taylor & Francis Group

The startling growth of China's economic and military power, as well as its cultural influence, is having a huge impact on the rest of the world. The key region to observe this impact is, of course, Asia and the past decade has witnessed significant and multi-faceted changes in China's policy toward its Asian neighbours and in the relations between them. The strategic dimension of China ...

ABSTRACTIndia's current China policy is a transcript of the pragmatic outlook that it has pursued all these years towards its immediate neighbour. The principal narration of this pragmatism is economic engagement. Amidst this pragmatism, Prime Minister Narendra Modi aims to bring about parity of power, both bilaterally and regionally, that will position India as a peer partner
