Come A Little Closer by Rachel Abbott is a psychological thriller that is dark and disturbing about lies, control and murder. A woman on holiday trying to get away from her abusive boyfriend meets a kind elderly lady who is willing to give her the support she needs and said that she has helped many girls before.

Come A Little Closer (DCJ Tom Douglas, #7) by Rachel Abbott
Come a Little Closer is a surprisingly effective mating of a distinctive singer with seemingly incongruous material and production. Helmed by Gabriel Mekler, who'd produced Steppenwolf and Three Dog Night, the record features Etta James supported by a slew of hotshot L.A. session men (including Little Feat's Lowell George).

"Come a Little Closer" is a CD that I can listen to over and over and over again. These melodies are addictive and instantly embraceable. I have wonderful memories of driving from Seattle down the coast to San Francisco with nothing but my beautiful wife and my Patchouli CD's. You will not be disappointed with this CD!
