CIRCUS IN WINTER

The Circus in Winter is an excellent book made up of interconnected short stories about all variety of people tied to a circus that wintered in a small town in Indiana. Usually novels made up of short stories leave me cold, but these were so well woven together with such pervasive common themes that it was really enjoyable.

: The Musical - Cathy Day

Beautyberry is a deciduous shrub found naturally in the southeastern United States. It typically grows four to five feet tall and wide, although it's been known to reach nine feet in height. While beautyberry's foliage is unspectacular, this plant is known for one remarkable feature: bright purple berries
