the pilgrimage does prepare the spirit for interaction with the divine. This is particularly the case with the modern Hajj, the pilgrimage many Muslims make in their lifetime to Mecca. These pilgrims are walking in the footsteps, literally, of Muhammad.

What is the Difference Between a Pilgrimage and a Quest?

The Modern Day Pilgrimage. Pilgrimage is a concept as old as humanity itself. Human beings, across cultural and religious boundaries, historical and economical spectrums, regardless of race or gender, have been taking pilgrimages from time immemorial. The idea of a pilgrim conjures a lonely figure on an endless road, staff in one hand, religious beads or memento in the other, an icon, high on the hill in the distance.
